Chalapathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

May - June 2010

CIPS-Chalapathi Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences was started in the year 2004 in lush green environment near lam. It has grown into a prestigious institution within a short span of six years of its inception. It is presently spread across an area of 5,267.88 sq.m. consisting of 19 labs equipped with state of the art equipments and decorated with highly qualified, experienced team of 5 professors, 5 Assistant Professors and 13 Lecturers. The institution has gained respect of the peers in academics and industry for the quality of academic and research activities being carried out here. Students are excelling in increasing numbers in annual, state and national level competitive examinations. The CIPS family is growing across the country and even beyond. In order to interconnect all, we are planning to bring out a bimonthly magazine. "CHALAPATHI INSTITUTE OF PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES-NEWSLETTER" both in electronic and print version.

This news letter is aimed at being a link between the members of CIPS family and the world out side. It purports to showcase the activities at CIPS-academic, research, co-curricular, cultural and social.
