

Name : Mohammad Mustaq.

Designation : Assistant professor.

Department : Pharmaceutics.

Research Area of Interest : Novel Drug Delivery Systems.

- The explanation of each and every topic with live examples to draw their attention and to create interest over subject.
- Utilize flow charts / illustrations to make the students understand the concepts.
- Encourage students to refer several text / reference books and prepare their own notes.
- To ensure in-depth understanding of the topics, students are posed with logical reasoning questions, during class and encourage to answer the same with justification.
- Motivate the students towards minor research projects and guide them in the development of various formulations.
- Allotting assignments to get grip over the subject.
- Conduct quizzes / group discussions to inculcate competitive spirit among students.
- Conduct student seminars to improve communication skills and overall performance of students.